

Q: Can I visit UC CalFresh Nutrition Education program on the UC Davis campus for help with my CalFresh application or support with questions?

A: The UC CalFresh Nutrition Education program does not administer the CalFresh benefits program. We suggest visiting the Yolo County website or the Department of Social Services' CalFresh page for more information.

Q: How to apply for the CalFresh program?

A: You can apply online through benefitscal.org or by visiting your local county office. You can find the contact information for your local county office on the Mybenefitscalwin.org page.

Q: I am a UC Davis student, how do I apply for CalFresh?

A: If you live in Yolo county, you can also apply through benefitscal.org or by visiting your local Yolo county office.

Q: I am a UCD student, do I qualify for the CalFresh program?

A: You may be able to qualify. Visit the Yolo County website for more information on program requirements.

Q: I am a Yolo county resident, where can I apply for the CalFresh program?

A: Visit the Yolo County website for more information on where to apply.

Q: Where can I find more information about the CalFresh program?

A: You can visit the Yolo County website or the Department of Social Services' CalFresh page for more information.

Q: Can I visit UC CalFresh Nutrition Education program for help with my CalFresh application or support with questions?

A: The UC CalFresh Nutrition Education program does not administer the CalFresh benefits program. We suggest visiting the Yolo County website or the Department of Social Services' CalFresh page for more information.

Q: I received a CalFresh Eligibility Certificate from the UC Davis Financial Aid Office. What does this mean and how should I follow-up?

A: Contact the UC Davis Financial Aid office for any questions about the Certificate of Eligibility.